

Associations With The Archetypes
And Houses

Sacred Contracts by Caroline Myss

Page 251

House (_____)

What are my immediate associations with this archetype and the meaning of its house?

What specific experiences come to mind as I think of the partnership between this archetype and its house?

What associations with relationships do I have with this archetype and house?

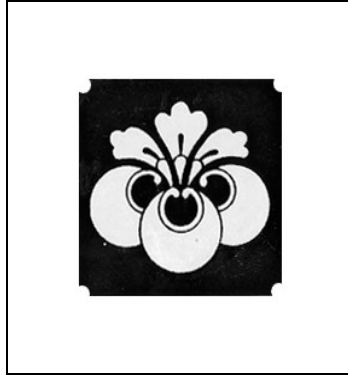

What issues of power come to mind as I review this archetype and its house?

Associations With The Archetypes
And Houses
Continued

What kind of power do I associate with this archetype?

When I combine the archetype with its house, what experiences can I recall that directly relate to learning about my relationship to power? Am I competitive? Have I ever harmed another person because of my actions, power plays, or ambitions? Have I ever helped to empower someone else in any of the areas of this house?

From the Past to the Present
House (_____)

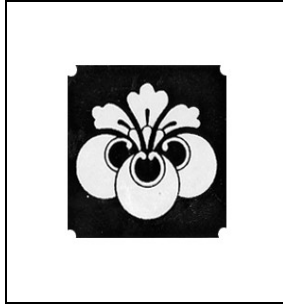

What lessons and wisdom have I learned from the partnership of this archetype and house?

What challenges am I presently confronting within the meaning and context of this house and its archetypal pattern?

What strengths and talents can I associate with this archetype-house partnership?

What opportunities have come into my life that I can connect to this archetype and this house?

What fears or superstitions do I associate with having a direct connection to the characteristics of this archetype and the meaning of this house?

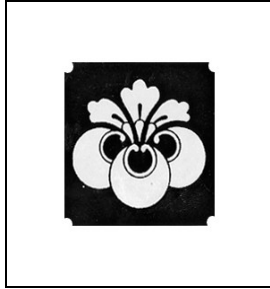

From the Past to the Present
House (_____)
Continued

What unfinished business within this house relates to this archetype?

What health crises do I associate with this archetype and this house? What challenges relate to the emotional and psychological stress points appropriate to this partnership?

Are there challenges that I consider inevitable that are related to this archetype's house?

Am I presently facing a "significant choice point" regarding any relationship or situation that I associate with this archetype-house partnership?

From the Past to the Present

House (_____)

Continued

What experiences would I consider divine interventions and “surrenders” in this house? What were the consequences of those interventions?

What two experiences of “betrayal” do I associate with this house and its archetypal pattern (one in which I was betrayed, and one in which I betrayed someone)?

How does the challenge of forgiveness relate to the archetype in this house?
